Bible Story Review: Discuss story. Answer comprehension questions.

Bible Story Activity:

Toddlers to Grade 2: Make a dry well out of playdough.

Make a little Joseph and put him in the well.

Grades 3-5: Have the children read 1 Corinthians 13:4 from the Bible.

Discuss the meaning of the key words. Then read to the children the "What Is the Person Doing?" page and ask the children to respond as explained on the page.

What Is the Person Doing?

Ask the children to tell you if the person in the situation is
being kind;
being patient;
being envious;
boasting or listening to God.

A boy looks at his friend's new bike and wishes it was his instead.
Being Envious

The girl is reading a Bible story about Jesus blessing little children, and she feels His love for her.
Hearing God

The boy is helping his grandmother put away the groceries.
Being Kind

The girl sees a new girl standing all alone on the playground at recess. A thought crosses her mind: "Go over and talk to her."
Hearing God

A girl does better on her report card than her brother. She tells him, "That's because I'm so smart."
Boasting

A boy is finished supper and wants to go and play in his room. His sister is not finished yet. He talks to his father while he waits.
Being Patient

A boy is heading towards the street when he sees, in his mind, a picture of a speeding car. He stops before he crosses the street and looks extra carefully both ways.
